

Terrebonne Parish Library System Presents...

Books for the Bayou

(Formerly known as Local Authors Day)

To be held at the Terrebonne Parish Main Library at 151 Library Drive, Houma LA 70360

October 7, 2017 from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Registration begins August 1. Spaces are limited.

Terrebonne Parish Library System's responsibilities and restrictions for the event:

- Terrebonne Parish Main Library will provide a table and 2 chairs in the designated area of the Main Library for the event.
- The library will promote the event through its media contacts and in-house PR using announcements in the library's monthly newsletter, flyers, posters, webpage, and book displays.
- The library is not responsible for any loss of personal items, book inventory, or sales.
- The library cannot provide change for a book sale transaction.
- The library will provide water.

Author responsibilities and restrictions for the event:

- Must have published a book within the past 3 years. Content of book must be appropriate by library standards.
- Must provide 4-week advance notice of participation to be included in library promotion
- May bring table place-name card and decorations
- Must accept responsibility for protecting and securing personal items, book inventory, and money collected from sales
- Must accept responsibility for bringing own books to sell. Past publications may be sold alongside new publications.
- Must provide own start-up money for giving change
- Must declare any sale of books with the Louisiana State Revenue Department

If you are interested in promoting your book at this event, email Jessi Suire at jsuire@mytpl.org or call 985-850-5301.