The Terrebonne Parish Library Presents Bae and Beb

Exciting news! TPL has partnered with local television station HTV to bring the adventures of Bae and Beb to patrons--no matter where you are in the parish!

The program is the library's way of continuing educational and recreational outreach in the community despite the current state of social distancing.

The program will air on Bayou Time every Thursday (starting Sept. 3).

Job Searching Resources

August 5 @ 3 PM

Learn to navigate a job search engine with Judy Mire of Louisiana Workforce Commission. This virtual lesson will guide job seekers on how to use various online resources.

Business Resiliency Planning

August 19 @ 3 PM

Jimmy Nguyen from the Louisiana Small Business Development Center will host this virtual seminar which will discuss ways to prepare a comprehensive business plan.

Made possible by the Libraries Lead with Digital Skills initiative via the American Library Association and the Public Library Association.

Thanks to Terrebonne Parish Recreation District No. 2/3, Houma now has a fun disc golf course in Summerfield Park!

With an adult library card, you can now check out a disc set from the Main Library for a max of 5 days. Sets include a putter, mid-range disc, and a driver (pictured on the left).

For more information and/or to schedule a tournament, contact Brock Landry at 985-803-2851.

Staff SPOTLIGHT

Maxine Carlos East Houma Clerk

How long have you worked for TPLS? Part-time since January 2017 and full-time since January 2020.

What do you love most about the library? I love the patrons the most. I love to help and serve them.

If you could read any book again for the first time, what would it be and why? I would read An Amish Christmas Bakery by Amy Clipston, Beth Wiseman, Kathleen Fuller, and Kelly Irvin, four short romance stories set in a bakery. I love that because I want to open a pie shop one day.

You can have an unlimited supply of one thing for the rest of your life. What do you choose? I choose grace. It's good to have grace and do gracefully all the things we want to accomplish in life.

Where would you go if you could travel to anywhere you wanted to in the world? I would love to go to Spain. My great great grandfather Elsavador was from Spain, and I'd love to go visit.
