Be sure to stop by and browse the Friends of the Terrebonne Public Library's inventory of thousands of gently-used adult and children's books priced at $5 a bag. Cash and check accepted. Example photos do not represent real inventory.

Summer Reading Program

The 2023 Summer Reading Program will host the theme Reading Colors Your World. Readers can explore the world around them or travel to an imaginary world through books.

The raffle for K-6th grade children is a bicycle and helmet, cosponsored by the Kiwanis Club. The prize for teens/adults is a gift basket.

The Summer Reading Program activities and performers are funded through the Friends of the Terrebonne Public Library.

Sign up at mytpl.org/srp
Program runs May 30 - July 29.

Program Spotlight

The Terrebonne Parish Main Library is partnering with Synergy Bank on May 6 to offer Safe Stand Locations for Bayou Lemonade Day.

Bayou Lemonade Day is a free educational initiative designed to teach children how to start, own, and operate their own lemonade stand.

Visit the Main Library on May 6 for Touch-A-Truck, and stop by the lemonade stands to support young future business leaders.
